What advantages does it offer over any other resort on the lower Potomac?

In the first place, it has railroad transportation, which no other resort on the Potomac has. You can leave Washington or Baltimore by rail in the morning or evening and be at Chapel Point in a little over two hours. You can leave Saturday evening, arriving at Chapel Point for supper, remain until Monday morning, when you can take the 6.10 train and be in Washington at 8.30 and Baltimore at 8.40 in time for office. The telegraph office is in easy reach. The hotel bus meets every train.

In the second place, by taking the steamer you arrive about noon and not at four, seven and eleven at night, as is done at other resorts lower down the river. Returning you have time to take a good morning's nap, get a good breakfast and take the steamer at 8.15 a. m., and not at three, four and six in the morning as others do lower down. These are valuable inducements, and not offered elsewhere on the Potomac.

"How happy they,
Who, from the toil and tumult of their lives,
Steal to look down where naught but ocean strives!"

How about the Accommodations?

Hotel Belleview is the largest in Southern Maryland. Capacity, 200 guests. Cool rooms and large double porches. Board on the American and European plans. Meals first-class and daily supplied with the luxuries of the salt water. Ample shade and green lawns for promenading and tennis courts. Mineral water, and not a mosquito. Think of it!

How about the Attractions?

The dancing pavilion, 150 feet long, is right on the cool beach, and is the most delightful spot for dancing on the Potomac. During the months of July and August a Grand Colonial Ball will be given on Tuesday and Thursday nights. A Grand Fancy Dress Ball on Thursday night, July 12 and August 16. A Grand Masquerade Ball on Thursday night, July 26 and August 30. All given under the auspices of the management. The music will be first-class, and concerts will be given every evening.

"On with the dance! Let joy be unconfined,
No sleep till morn, when Youth and Pleasure meet."

Bowling, shooting gallery, tennis court, and driving over the beautiful country will amuse and invigorate. It has all the advantages of the ocean—fine fishing and crabbing, excellent bathing, and a safe harbor for rowing and sailing. Refreshments at the Club Room.

How about the Churches?

A Catholic Church and manor house, founded in 1741 by the Jesuit Missionaries, is situated on the hill, near the hotel, where religious services are held every day. An Episcopal Church is near by and a Baptist Church is soon to be erected. A lot is also reserved for a Methodist Church.

The Future County Seat.

Since the burning of the court-house at Port Tobacco, nearly two years ago, the Maryland Legislature has passed an act submitting to a vote of the people in June, 1895, the selection of a new county seat, and Chapel Point is one of the two places to be voted for. The sentiment of the people of the County, as well as of their friends outside of the County, is overwhelmingly in favor of Chapel Point. For over fifty years it has been looked upon as the future county seat by reason of its superior claims over any other location in the County. ITS SUCCESSFUL DEVELOPMENT WILL BRING PROSPERITY TO THE WHOLE COUNTY. The friends of Chapel Point, both resident and non-resident, REALIZE THE IMPORTANCE OF THIS FACT, and will make every effort to present to the people of the County the advantages of this place as the county seat, and, if selected, it will add another attractive feature to the town whose success is already assured and which is destined to become in the near future the great social, religious, educational, and commercial centre of Southern Maryland.
